

LEADERS OF INFLUENCE: Minority Attorneys

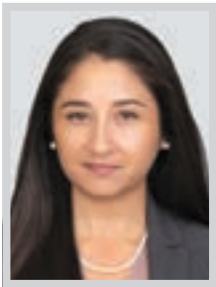

LOS ANGELES IS TRULY A NATIONAL LEADER WHEN IT COMES TO INFLUENTIAL PROFESSIONALS WITH MINORITY backgrounds – and the field of law is certainly no exception. There are many superb attorneys in the LA region who happen to be minorities, which is an important benchmark for an effective legal landscape. The California State Bar has reported that having a diverse legal profession positively impacts the administration of justice, ensures fairness and promotes the rule of law.

We've alphabetically listed 84 of the very best of those professionals here, along with insights and information about their careers, practice and success they've achieved. For our coverage in this issue, we have profiled those standout minority attorneys considered to be particularly impactful on the legal scene while serving as trusted advisors in the LA region. Congratulations to the attorneys who made this list and thank you for working to keep the people and businesses of Los Angeles on the right track.

Methodology: The professionals featured in these pages did not pay to be included. Their profiles were drawn from nomination materials submitted to the Los Angeles Business Journal. Those selected for inclusion were reviewed by the editorial department. The professionals were chosen based on a demonstration of impact made on the profession and on the Los Angeles community.

JASMIN BHANDARI
Principal
Scali Rasmussen, PC

Jasmin Bhandari maintains a regulatory and litigation practice primarily focused on labor and employment law. She provides advice and counsel to clients on compliance with state and federal employment laws, including termination and on-boarding issues. She also represents businesses in a broad range of disputes, including discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, wage and hour, and trade secret matters.

Bhandari's experience further includes defending companies in wage and hour class actions against meal and rest break, overtime, and timely payment of wage claims, including extensive experience with PAGA cases in both litigation and arbitration. Bhandari has obtained a dismissal of class claims in arbitration, drafted briefs for cases at the California Court of Appeal and successfully brought a motion to dismiss the appeal. Jasmin also has significant experience drafting and revising handbooks, pay plans, break and leave policies, employee surveys and confidentiality agreements.

JOSHUA BRIONES
Member; Managing Member, Los Angeles Office
Mintz

Joshua Briones has served as lead defense counsel on over 600 alleged nationwide class actions in state and federal courts across the country. He and his team have successfully defended many bet-the-company class actions that threaten a company's brand, reputation, business model and bottom line. A skilled negotiator, Briones has a long record of securing dismissals and extremely favorable settlements for his clients.

Notably, under Briones' leadership, Mintz's Los Angeles office has more than tripled in size and developed additional capabilities in specialty practice areas including IP and Health Law. He also brought in a highly regarded products liability team from Sedgwick and a talented real estate team from Pritcher. Recently, in a class action case alleging false advertising, Briones and his team successfully won a Motion for Sanctions against the plaintiff's counsel leading to the plaintiff's dismissal of class action claims.

ELIZABETH CAMACHO
Partner

As a child of Guatemalan immigrants living in the LA neighborhood of Boyle Heights, Miguel Custodio grew up witnessing structural inequality, which is why he now dedicates his LA practice to helping regular people get justice when harmed by corporations. Custodio focuses on personal injury and wrongful death cases. He has worked with hundreds of accident victims and their families over the years. When a client comes to him, he actively ensures that they're treated like family, taking care of them in the present and in the future. Custodio is committed to helping provide justice and opportunities for people who might otherwise be overlooked or intimidated by the legal system.

Custodio celebrated his firm's 10-year anniversary last year. Their dynamic approach has brought justice to hundreds of clients, compelled manufacturers and retailers to clean up thousands of dangerous or cancer-causing products, and resulted in nearly $100 million in settlements.

LOURDES DE ARMAS

Partner; Litigation Attorney
Omega Law Group

Lourdes De Armas is a partner and lead trial attorney at Omega Law Group. She has devoted her trial practice to protecting those vulnerable to the greed and exploitation of the powers that be – whether they be insurance companies, big business, etc. The strategic and methodical way in which she approaches her cases serve as an inspiration to future generations of lawyers. Throughout her career, she has used her intellect and expertise to advocate for victims of catastrophic personal injury, premises liability, wrongful death, as well as sexual abuse.

De Armas is also an inspiration to all her peers in the industry, and this is shown in the industry-recognitions she has accumulated over the years. Her tenacity and finesse in her past work surrounding contractual disputes, class actions and amusement park injury have been assets to her work at Omega Law Group.

VICTOR DE LA CRUZ

Partner
Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP

Victor De la Cruz, the leader of Manatt's Land Use practice group, has become recognized as one of the leading land use and government attorneys in Los Angeles. He counsels clients in various matters at the nexus of law and government – in particular, real estate development, where his work on complicated, high-profile land use entitlements has earned him consistent accolades.

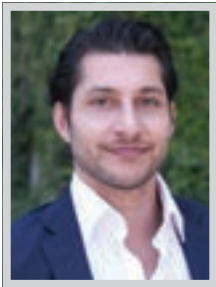

De la Cruz has played a key role in shaping the Los Angeles landscape. Projects have included Kilroy's Academy Square project in Hollywood; the Related Companies' Century condominium high-rise tower in Century City; and last year, on behalf of Mount Saint Mary's University, securing unanimous planning commission and city council approval of the university's Wellness Pavilion. De la Cruz has also become recognized as one of the leading practitioners in residential hillside development, being consistently called on for the most controversial disputes in this area.

Helen Hwang focuses her practice on counseling clients through complex and sensitive cross-border anti-corruption internal investigations and investigations by government enforcement authorities, such as the DOJ and SEC. She also advises clients across a range of industries on the corruption risks of proposed transactions and how to build and improve their compliance programs.

Hwang recently served as co-lead counsel for a military parts manufacturer in a DOJ False Claims Act investigation of alleged failure to comply with MIL-SPEC requirements for testing and qualification. She and the Covington team successfully obtained a declination from the DOJ Criminal Division for the company and a highly favorable settlement from the DOJ Civil Division. She also co-leads a team of Covington lawyers representing an international gaming and hospitality company in connection with a DOJ investigation of third-party money laundering.

BRITTANI JACKSON
Partner
Hueston Hennigan LLP

Brittani Jackson is a recognized rising star who represents clients in a broad range of complex business litigation and investigations conducted by the SEC and various Attorneys General. In January 2024 she became one of Hueston Hennigan’s newest partners. She joined the firm in March of 2018, and since then has become an integral member of the team taking lead roles in several high-profile matters.

Most recently, Jackson obtained a favorable settlement, after a week of trial, for Synchrony Financial (formerly GE Capital) in a lawsuit involving breach of contract, fraudulent misrepresentation and alter ego claims; helped to secure a unique plea for Bill McGlashan, founder of TPG Growth LLC and The Rise Fund, in the “Varsity Blues” college admissions case; achieved a favorable settlement for CoreLogic in litigation involving the misappropriation of its trade secrets; and successfully represented Endo Pharmaceuticals in litigation related to opioid abuse.

TRAVIS K. JANG-BUSBY
Partner, Labor & Employment
Blank Rome LLP

Travis Jang-Busby strategically represents his clients in high-stakes class action litigation in California and nationally, representative wage-hour litigation under the Private Attorneys General Act, discrimination litigation, and administrative investigations, and provides them with preventative counseling. He has extensive experience successfully representing clients in all phases of litigation and skillfully handles client matters from inception through trial.

Among Jang-Busby’s recent client successes has been his work successfully obtaining a non-compete injunction against a former employee veterinarian after she opened a competing veterinary hospital next door to a VCA hospital. The court agreed that the former employee was not permitted to compete following receipt of over $5 million dollars for her interest in the purchased animal hospital. The case is currently pending with the Court of Appeal. Jang-Busby also recently obtained a dismissal of all claims against his client in a claim of alleged wire-tapping by customer service chatbots.

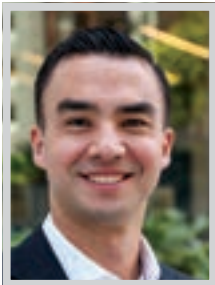

MARC JONES
Partner
Loeb & Loeb

Marc Jones, a partner in Loeb & Loeb’s corporate practice, is a seasoned transactional lawyer with more than two decades of experience handling complex business transactions and securities matters. Jones focuses his practice on private equity and strategic acquisitions, minority investments, venture capital and growth equity financings and joint ventures transactions. He also has extensive experience with corporate governance controversies, recapitalizations and restructurings, executive compensation and incentive equity matters, among other highly complex matters.

Jones’ prior experience in business and his MBA from UCLA allows him to be more than just a legal advocate for his clients. He is able to advise his clients on the business, strategic and market considerations that will inform the legal decisions that they will make together, especially when those decisions relate to transactions that may be new to his clients but are very familiar to Jones.

JASON KELLY
Partner
Annaguey McCann LLP

After spending more than a decade working at law firms of all sizes, Jason Kelly decided last May to start a new litigation law firm in Los Angeles with two of his partners. The firm is focused on providing high-quality litigation representation to smaller and mid-sized companies. Kelly, along with another of his colleagues, also had the privilege of trying the first in-person federal civil jury trial in the Central District of California when the court lifted restrictions on in-person trials during the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition to adapting to the various COVID-related restrictions and precautions, they were also faced with a judge who imposed a tight trial schedule likely due to a heavy backlog. Despite the complex intellectual property issues involved in the claims, Kelly and the team rose to the challenge. They streamlined the case, adhered to the schedule and secured a jury verdict for their client.

JASON KIM
Counsel
Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP

Jason Kim, litigation counsel at Hunton Andrews Kurth’s Los Angeles office, is helping global brands to navigate their most high-profile cybersecurity and privacy class actions in California. He counts among his clients Meta Platforms Inc. (fka Facebook), Bath & Body Works, Inc., Walmart, Neiman Marcus, Flurry, Rite Aid, Checkers Drive-In Restaurants, MGM and Verizon. Kim has litigated multiple highly publicized data breach class actions, financial services class actions and consumer class actions for a broad spectrum of Fortune 500 companies. Among other things, Kim has served as litigation counsel to one of the largest online services in the world in class actions involving the largest reported data breach in history. On May 4, 2022, Kim won a significant victory for Bath & Body Works, Inc. (fka L Brands) in a high-stakes class action involving multiple prominent retailers.

JASON S. KIM
Partner, Corporate Law
Blank Rome LLP

Jason S. Kim, a 30-year deal lawyer, represents domestic and foreign companies, financial institutions, funds, serial entrepreneurs, and high net worth individuals in corporate and real estate transactions and related financing with an emphasis on cross border deals. His deals in the US involve foreign buyers, PEs and banks. Frequently, he is brought into PE transactions as corporate counsel, on the other side of the PEs. Among Kim’s most significant deals are investee-side representation of a green energy company in raising nearly $300 million through six rounds of equity financing; issuer-side representation of a Korean airline in the private placement offering of $200 million in unsecured bonds; and investor-side representation of a Korean social, on-line gaming company in acquiring controlling interest in a US social, on-line gaming company for $130 million. Kim is co-chair of Blank Rome’s firm-wide Diversity & Inclusion Committee and a member of its multicultural affinity group.

NARY KIM
Partner
Kendall Brill & Kelly LLP

Kendall Brill & Kelly Partner Nary Kim is a leader inside and outside of the courtroom. As a partner and lead member of KBK’s Media and Entertainment team, Kim has been an integral member of seven KBK trial teams, including the trial teams that won a favorable judgment for a prominent business client and secured multiple arbitration victories for major film and television studios. Kim rose to be a partner in just five years, having thoroughly demonstrated the expertise needed to develop winning cases for KBK’s clients. In just the past year, she played a leading role in securing the dismissal of a child pornography case filed by the person pictured on the album cover of Nirvana’s “Nevermind,” and recently helped secure the early dismissal of a high-profile lawsuit against Paramount Pictures seeking $500 million brought by two former actors in the 1968 film adaptation of “Romeo and Juliet.”

TAISUKE KIMOTO

Partner; Co-Lead, Japan Practice
Covington & Burling LLP

Taisuke Kimoto co-leads Covington’s Japan Practice, which advises a number of Japan’s largest corporations as well as individuals, trade associations and governmental agencies on their most sensitive and complex legal challenges in the United States, Europe, China and elsewhere. Drawing upon his long-standing relationships and robust business and legal networks in Japan, Kimoto serves as an ambassador of the firm to the Japanese business community and to global companies with interests in the Japanese market.

Kimoto is a corporate lawyer whose practice focuses on M&A transactions, general corporate matters, and real estate transactions for companies based in Japan. He also serves as an outside US general counsel for a number of Japanese companies and in that capacity provides advice in many areas, including dispute resolution and employment. In 2021, Chambers Global recognized him among the leading lawyers for Corporate/M&A: Deals in Asia.

KRISTINE KWONG

Partner
Musick, Peeler & Garrett LLP

Kristine Kwong is a partner in the Musick, Peeler & Garrett’s Los Angeles office and advises and counsels clients on a wide range of business, corporate, operational and employment issues, including business counseling, contract negotiation and preparation, restrictive covenant and non-compete agreements, executive mobility issues, due diligence in connection with mergers and acquisitions, and a range of employment matters.

Kwong represents public and private sector entities in retail, manufacturing, finance, healthcare, hospitality, real estate and charitable and tax-exempt organizations, including religious entities, federally qualified health centers, educational institutions and public sector agencies, municipalities, commissions, and special districts in both litigation and transactional matters. She has defended single-plaintiff and class action wage and hour matters, claims under the Private Attorney General Act, discrimination, harassment, retaliation claims, non-compete, trade secrets, restrictive covenants, as well as business and partnership disputes.

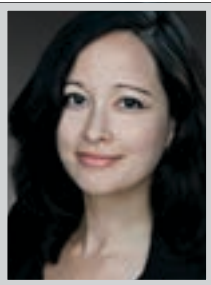

AYMARA LEDEZMA

Partner
Fisher Phillips

Aymara Ledezma is a partner in Fisher Phillips’ Los Angeles office. She represents and counsels employers in all aspects of labor and employment law, including matters involving wage and hour issues, allegations of discrimination and harassment, and wrongful discharge. She has a background in representing employers against claims before state and federal courts and government agencies and has obtained favorable results at agency hearings.

Ledezma counsels businesses of all sizes on day-to-day employment issues, offering preventative advice to clients on a variety of issues including advising them on wage and hour law, exemption status, meal and rest break policy, harassment training, termination steps, and reasonable accommodations, among other employment issues. Ledezma also assists clients with workplace investigations, including allegations of sexual harassment and other complaints. She also frequently presents seminars and workshops on employment issues to executives, supervisors, managers, and human resources professionals.

LISIA LEON

Partner
Paduano & Weintraub

Paduano & Weintraub partner Lisia Leon recently represented an employer (a large public company, with locations in over 100 cities across the US) in connection with a class action federal wage and hour suit brought by a former employee. Leon successfully opposed the plaintiff’s efforts to certify a nationwide collective consisting of hundreds of locations and thousands of employees over a six-year period. Following a mediation, Leon obtained a favorable class-wide settlement for close to 2,000 other employees.

Leon also recently secured summary judgment for a real estate management group, board of a condominium building and individual board members on claims of tortious interference with contract and whistleblower claims. She also successfully obtained a favorable settlement for another client, an operator of a website, in connection with a web access case brought pursuant to UNRUH.

We proudly congratulate our colleagues, Evan Chuck and Sima Namiri-Kalantari, on being named among the Los Angeles Business Journal’s “Leaders of Influence: Minority Attorneys.”

PAUL LOH
Managing Partner
Willenken LLP

Paul Loh is Willenken’s managing partner and a founding member of the firm. Loh has spent over 30 years honing his craft in civil and criminal litigation and has tried over 120 jury trials, court trials, and arbitrations during his impressive career. He counsels and defends leading corporations in high-stakes litigation with a focus on product liability and major torts, white collar criminal defense and internal investigations, intellectual property, class actions and complex business litigation.

As a result of his substantial trial experience, major companies turn to Loh for some of their most challenging litigation cases and have engaged him just months or weeks before trial, specifically to act as trial counsel. Loh’s clients include leading companies such as AbbVie, Procter & Gamble, Motorola Solutions, SunPower, Southern California Gas Company and Walmart.

DANIEL LYNCH
Partner
Akin

Akin partner Dan Lynch is a highly regarded leader in the firm’s Projects & Energy Transition practice. He is regularly called upon to assist leading renewable energy clients in cutting-edge, sophisticated transactions, with a particular focus on power hedges – highly complex financial tools that require the market acumen and experience of a derivatives lawyer alongside the insight into, and practical knowledge of renewable energy, of a projects practitioner.

As part of his practice, Lynch plays leading roles in many significant matters for key renewable industry players. Recent examples include leading the representations for Excelsior Energy Capital, a leading independent North American renewable energy investor, in its $1.3 billion financing package for the Faraday Solar project in Utah County, Utah. Lynch and the Akin team also represented Excelsior in its acquisition of Faraday Solar earlier this year from Parasol and Clenera.

HEMAL MASTER
Managing Shareholder
Frandzel Robins Bloom & Csato, L.C.

Hemal Master serves as the Frandzel Robins Bloom & Csato’s managing shareholder. He maintains a robust practice focusing on all aspects of lender representation, including representation of commercial banks, private equity funds, commercial finance companies, hedge funds and other lenders in real estate and commercial loan transactions, commercial and real estate loan workouts, lender liability defense, and exercise and enforcement of all types of lender remedies.

In addition to his experience with the firm, Master completed a three year long secondment to a major regional bank in which he advised on hundreds of matters involving distressed debt and supervised litigation on matters in 45 different states. He recently represented an international bank as lead lender in the structuring, documentation, negotiation and closing of a $125 million syndicated construction loan for the development of a 236-room, full-service hotel.

MARCELLUS MCRAE
Partner; Co-Chair, Trials Practice Group
Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

Marcellus McRae has first-chaired numerous jury trials, bench trials and arbitrations in both federal and state courts. McRae has honed his litigation and white-collar criminal defense practices to focus on a wide variety of complex business disputes, internal investigations, and criminal prosecutions including defense of individuals and corporations.

Among McRae’s recent highlights was his work defeating all claims by a prominent crypto investor against AT&T in a cryptocurrency theft. McRae also won an important victory in 2020 in California Court of Appeal for the City of Santa Monica in a case involving the California Voting Rights Act – a win that marked the first victory for any defendant in a California Voting Rights Act case. McRae also represented California schoolchildren in the landmark case, Vergara v. State of California, which asserted a state constitutional challenge to laws that prevent school administrators from hiring and retaining the most effective teachers.

SHAHAB MOSSAVAR-RAHMANI
Founding Partner; Litigation Attorney
Omega Law Group

Shahab Mossavar-Rahmani is a co-founding partner of Omega Law Group, one of the fastest growing personal injury firms in Southern California. He was able to help rapidly grow the litigation department to a sizable team consisting of eight litigation attorneys whom he now oversees, a stark contrast to the firm’s small litigation team in 2016. In just a little over seven years, he along with his co-founders are able to employ over 100 employees and serve personal injury victims nationwide.

With trial experience as a deputy public defender in Orange County, Mossavar-Rahmani is a seasoned litigator who has dealt with countless felony and misdemeanor cases where he gained invaluable skills and tactics he still uses to defend the vulnerable against insurance companies. What motivates Mossavar-Rahmani more than anything, is a genuine desire to help people.

POOJA NAIR
Partner
Ervin Cohen & Jessup LLP

Pooja Nair is a go-to attorney for the food, beverage and hospitality industries and handles partnership disputes, false advertising claims, employment disputes and administrative law issues. While she is a talented and experienced litigator, her specialty is finding creative means to ensure that legal problems have practical business solutions.

Some recent key representative matters include Nair’s work handling a partnership dispute on behalf of a lead investor in a restaurant, which was resolved pre-litigation with a favorable settlement for the client. She also represented a restaurant group against an insurance company and successfully stayed the insurer’s declaratory relief action in federal court. She also advised two related winter sports companies through a highly contentious partnership dispute that was resolved pre-litigation. She assisted over a dozen small and mid-market food and beverage clients in addressing false advertising complaints and potential complaints related to product labels, advertising and reviews.

SIMA NAMIRI-KALANTARI
Partner
Crowell & Moring LLP

Sima Namiri-Kalantari, a partner in Crowell’s Antitrust and Competition Group, has established herself as a distinguished complex commercial litigator, specializing in antitrust and unfair competition law. Providing strategic representation and guidance to her clients, Namiri-Kalantari has defended clients in civil antitrust litigation, as well as represented Fortune 500 companies as plaintiffs in recovery actions against price-fixing cartels.

Namiri-Kalantari leverages her background in economics to all stages of litigation, including expert selection and testimony, discovery, class action defense, and preparing for trial. She regularly counsels clients on a broad range of antitrust issues, and also conducts antitrust compliance trainings, equipping clients with the knowledge necessary to navigate potential legal pitfalls. Her experience spans multiple industries, including aerospace and defense, telecommunications, manufacturing, technology, healthcare, and consumer products.

ARNOLD REED II

Litigation Lawyer
Ivie McNeill Wyatt Purcell & Diggs

Arnold E. Reed II is a trial lawyer licensed in California and Michigan where he is originally from. He is a litigation associate in the LA office of the firm Ivie, McNeill, Wyatt, Purcell & Diggs. Since moving to California in 2021, Reed has tried cases in Downtown Los Angeles, Van Nuys, Pasadena and Santa Monica on behalf of severely injured plaintiffs. In 2023 Reed secured over $4 million in settlements. Reed also defends those ensnared in the criminal justice system.

Prior to moving to California, Reed began his career in 2019 at his parents’ firm, Arnold E. Reed & Associates. There, he managed a docket consisting of personal injury and medical malpractice cases. During the pandemic, Reed noticed an uptick of people struggling to navigate through the criminal justice system. This prompted him to defend indigent clients, at no cost to them, in Detroit.

ESTEBAN RODRIGUEZ

Partner
O’Melveny & Myers LLP

Esteban Rodriguez is an experienced litigator whose diverse practice focuses on defending consumer products and life sciences companies in government investigations and complex, multi-jurisdictional matters alleging product liability, false advertising, unfair competition and other consumer fraud claims. Promoted to partner earlier this year at the age of 38, Rodriguez has become a trusted advisor to major pharmaceutical clients, including Johnson & Johnson in the opioids litigation. He also provides life sciences law compliance advice to multiple pharmaceutical and medical device companies.

For the better part of a decade, Rodriguez has been a key member of the O’Melveny team representing J&J in state and federal multi-district litigation relating to prescription opioid medications. He was a member of the team that scored the first trial win for any drug companies in the opioid litigation when a California state court judge found J&J and others not liable in a $50 billion suit.

JULIA ROMANO
Partner
King & Spalding

Julia Romano is a high-performing lawyer at international law firm King & Spalding and is dedicated to DEI efforts both within and outside the firm. Her efforts advocating on behalf of LGBTQ+ individuals on pro bono matters have been especially notable.

Romano successfully obtained asylum for three trans women from El Salvador who had suffered violence at the hands of El Salvadorian police because of their transgender status. They then fled to Mexico only to be kidnapped by a human trafficker who attempted to sell them into sex slavery. They were able to escape and fled to the US in 2014, where they immediately sought asylum. Romano's representation of one of these trans women was an odyssey that lasted throughout the pandemic and several delays in immigration court. She is now helping these women obtain permanent residency status, as well as legal name and gender changes.

MISTY SANFORD
Partner; Chair, Real Estate – West Coast
Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP

Misty Sanford is a partner in the Real Estate Department in Willkie's Los Angeles office, where she serves as chair of real estate for the West Coast. Her sophisticated and broad-based real estate transactional practice involves all aspects of real estate, with an emphasis on loan workouts, public/private partnerships, real estate financing (including CMBS), complex mixed-use developments, purchase and sale, joint ventures, environmental issues, land use, leasing and reciprocal easement agreements, which allows her to assist with the full lifecycle of real estate assets.

Whether leading transformational real estate transactions or creating innovative diversity programs, Sanford is a mover and shaker in real estate law and the legal community. Anoush Sarkissian is a counsel in Skadden's Los Angeles real estate group where she handles large, complex, multi-faceted transactions with many of the most sophisticated clients and counterparties in the real estate, corporate real estate and private equity space, both nationally and globally. Her practice is broad, ranging from traditional real estate work to intricate private equity and M&A transactions, as well as strategic advice for portfolio companies, and her diverse client base includes private equity firms, pension & sovereign wealth funds, public companies, as well as real estate, infrastructure and healthcare companies.

Sarkissian is known for her unassuming, poised and calm presence that is powerfully reinforced by her outstanding lawyering abilities, her ability to effectively lead deals and the ease with which she inspires confidence in clients and colleagues. Sarkissian has extensive experience leading all aspects of complex transactions.

ANNE NAKORN RATANA SLUSSER
Partner
Meyer, Olson, Lowy & Meyers

Anne Nakornratana Slusser began working at Meyer, Olson, Lowy & Meyers in 2002. A decade later, the law firm named her one of its partners. During the length of her tenure, she has distinguished herself as an experienced attorney capable of handling some of the most volatile cases that come to the firm. Her clients primarily include high-profile individuals from Los Angeles and Orange County. She focuses on helping her clients manage their expectations of high-asset divorce and custody.

More than just sharing her legal expertise with her clients, Slusser provides them with emotional support and is an excellent listener. In addition, while she is always prepared for trial, she also enjoys finding ways to help her clients avoid litigation.

The best leaders inspire us to soar higher.

Akerman LLP

Mishell Parreno Taylor, a distinguished labor and employment partner at Akerman, brings two decades of strategic defense experience to global businesses. Her focus extends across federal and state courts as well as administrative agencies nationwide, with a specific emphasis on Texas and California. Through her deep expertise practicing in nearly polar opposite states when it comes to workplace regulation, she has become a business partner to stakeholders and industry leaders on a broad range of high stake employment law issues, including individual and class-wide claims of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation as well as wage and hour litigation.

Taylor has represented clients across a broad spectrum of industries including bioscience, healthcare, technology, energy, entertainment, manufacturing, food and beverage, hospitality, finance, fintech, retail, and real estate. In addition to litigation, she has served as a key negotiator in high stakes workplace negotiations.

GUILLERMO TELLO
Member
Clark Hill

Clark Hill labor & employment attorney Guillermo Tello has amassed an impressive set of accomplishments as a leader within his practice at Clark Hill, a leader within the Hispanic Bar, a leader in the local community where he lives and works, and a leader in successfully representing firm clients. Guillermo joined Clark Hill as a member (same as partner) in August of 2019 from LeClairRyan’s Los Angeles office where he had been a partner.

Shortly after Tello’s arrival at Clark Hill, the pandemic emerged and precipitated unprecedented shut down orders that left the business world uncertain of how-to carry-on. Tello did not hesitate and with his natural leadership formed and agreed to chair Clark Hill’s COVID-19 Employment Litigation Task Force. His team ably navigated the complex and multi-layered challenges and uncertainty facing businesses in the management of their workforce by providing business management advice with diligence and clarity.

VANESSA TERZIAN
Partner
Lagerlof, LLP

Vanessa Terzian began her legal career as a trust officer for Wells Fargo where she learned how a poor estate plan can ruin a family’s fortune. After witnessing the importance of proper planning, Terzian now focuses on helping families through her expertise in estate and tax planning, probate, and trust administration. What sets her apart is her understanding of the needs of growing families, her ability to relate to working parents who desire a better life for themselves and their families, and her know-how in implementing strategic estate-planning tools in the most cost-efficient and seamless manner. Terzian draws on her real estate and business background to craft comprehensive plans for clients.

Terzian is a skilled public speaker, having conducted countless seminars throughout her legal career on various estate-planning topics, including kids protection planning, special needs planning, Medi-Cal planning, advanced tax planning and asset protection for individuals and small businesses.

DELMAR S. THOMAS
Partner
Yukevich | Cavanaugh

Delmar Thomas is an experienced trial lawyer with over two decades of courtroom experience. He has been consistently effective and successful for his clients in briefing and arguing key motions in state and federal courts across the country. His oral advocacy skills have led to significant victories through case dispositive motions, summary judgment, appeals, and various post-trial motions in high-exposure cases.

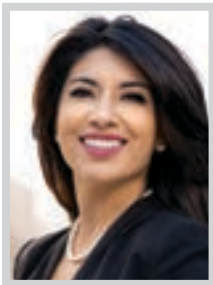

While Thomas is viewed in the legal community as a relentless advocate for his clients, he is also respected for his negotiation skills and pragmatic approach to alternative dispute resolution. He has negotiated countless favorable settlements for clients through aggressive factual investigation and case assessment. Thomas has a wealth of experience in handling and resolving matters through a variety of alternative dispute resolution strategies. His practice currently focuses on litigation, with extensive experience in product liability, construction defect, mass tort, premises liability and general negligence.

JASON TOKORO
Partner
Miller Barondess, LLP

Jason Tokoro is a complex commercial litigator who is skilled at crafting a case strategy to accommodate his clients’ unique interests and objectives. He has achieved significant victories for both plaintiffs and defendants and has been recognized among the top litigators in Los Angeles.

Tokoro represented Zions Bancorporation, N.A. dba California Bank & Trust in a breach of contract case against JPMorgan Chase Bank. Tokoro defeated JPMorgan’s motion to dismiss the suit after it was removed to federal court and the suit was settled prior to trial. Tokoro is also outside counsel for the County of Los Angeles and handles the County’s complex litigation matters. He defended the County in one of the most heavily publicized civil trials in the country in 2022 – stemming from crash scene photographs taken by County personnel immediately following the tragic helicopter crash that killed nine individuals, including Kobe Bryant and his daughter.

MARINA TORRES
Partner, Litigation
Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP

Marina Torres is a partner in Willkie’s Litigation Department, where she is a member of the White-Collar Defense and Investigations & Enforcement Practices. Torres focuses on government and corporate internal investigations, white collar criminal defense, congressional inquiries and complex civil litigation.

A former federal prosecutor who served as lead or co-lead in over 30 trials in federal and state courts, Torres is an experienced litigator whose trial practice includes civil litigation, criminal investigations and enforcement. She was the opioids coordinator for the US Attorney’s Office for the Central District of California, and previously taught a week-long criminal trial skills course on behalf of the US DOJ and US Dept. of State in Mexico City for Mexican judges, prosecutors and attorneys. She has also briefed and argued numerous appeals before the US Courts of Appeals, and was a political appointee with the Department of Homeland Security under President Obama.

We congratulate
GARY CHEN
on his selection to the
Los Angeles Business Journal’s 2024
“Leaders of Influence: Minority Attorneys.”

LOUISE TRUONG
Partner
Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP

Louise Truong has become the go-to labor and employment lawyer for some of the biggest names and brands in Hollywood. Throughout her career, Truong has represented virtually every major player in the media and entertainment industry, securing favorable resolutions for clients such as Warner Bros. Discovery and Visa Inc. despite contentious litigation.

When she's not defending clients, Truong regularly provides counseling on mitigating risk and advice on best practices for employment policies and procedures. Truong effortlessly juggles providing dedicated and top-notch legal work to clients and regularly mentoring associates at her firm, engaging in pro bono work, bringing in new business and helping her colleagues wherever she can. In 2023, Truong participated in Leadership Council on Legal Diversity's 2023 Fellows program, designed to provide high potential, mid-career attorneys with professional development opportunities, leadership training and access to relationship building opportunities with managing partners and general counsel.

JENNER TSENG
Partner
Hill, Farrer & Burrill LLP

Jenner C. Tseng practices in the areas of employment litigation, commercial litigation, real estate litigation, intellectual property litigation, insurance brokerage litigation, insurance recovery and complex insurance disputes. Tseng also regularly advises and assists clients in various non-litigation matters such as regulatory compliance, contract review and negotiation and corporate governance.

Tseng has extensive experience representing and advising a broad array of corporate and individual clients in the resolution of their complex business and employment disputes as quickly and efficiently as possible. He is skilled in the development of cost-effective litigation strategies to attain favorable results for his clients, including law and motion practice, utilizing focused discovery and Alternative Dispute Resolution. Tseng spent the majority of his childhood living abroad, including Saudi Arabia and Malaysia. Tseng received his Juris Doctor degree in 2002 from UCLA School of Law, where he was an associate editor of the Asian Pacific American Law Journal.

ELIZABETH TUAN
Partner
Irell & Manella LLP

A partner at Irell & Manella LLP, Elizabeth Tuan focuses on highly complex patent litigation ranging from biotechnology and pharmaceuticals to technical software components. Tuan is often a key member of teams on Irell's most significant victories, including serving on the team that in March 2021 secured a $2.18 billion verdict for VLSI Technology in a suit against Intel involving two patents on technology used in Intel's microprocessors. In April 2022, the trial judge issued a $2.3 billion final judgment in the case, which is the largest patent judgment in US history.

In November 2022, Tuan also was part of the team that obtained a $948 million jury verdict plus running royalties for VLSI in a different suit against Intel involving a microprocessor patent. She is a member of the team representing VLSI in another complex patent suit against Intel, which is scheduled for trial in March 2024.

BEN WANG
Partner
Russ August & Kabat

Ben Wang is a partner at Russ August & Kabat. He represents clients in business and intellectual property disputes, particularly in patent and trade secret trials and appeals. Wang served as lead counsel in a patent jury trial that resulted in a verdict in favor of his client on all issues and damages, and found willful infringement. The district court then enhanced the amount of damages by 100%, awarding Wang's client total damages of over $15 million.

Wang represents clients in a variety of matters. In another recent case, Wang was second chair in a patent jury trial and obtained a verdict in favor of his client on all issues and damages of $3.1 million. Wang also recently won an appeal against Meta before the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, reversing a summary judgement ruling against his client.

Diversity and inclusion are fundamental to our success.

Mintz is proud to congratulate our Members Joshua Briones and Arameh O'Boyle and all the other honorees named as the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2024 Leaders of Influence: Minority Attorneys.

TOMMY WANG

Partner
Wang IP Law Group,
a Professional Law Corporation

Tommy Wang has filed thousands of patents, trademarks and copyrights, and is experienced in negotiating licensing agreements and obtaining favorable settlements for his clients in order to avoid costly trials. Additionally, Wang is experienced in intellectual property litigation through the US Federal District Courts, United States Courts of Appeals and the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Patent Trial and Appeal Board and Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

Although Wang’s practice is primarily focused on patent, trademark and copyright, he regularly represents clients in antitrust and trade regulation, unfair competition, international business transactions and other complex business litigation matters. Additionally, Wang is an expert adviser to international businesses in US Customs and Border Protection and Food and Drug Administration regulatory compliance. Wang’s clients range from multinational public corporations to individual entrepreneurs.

BART H. WILLIAMS

Partner; Los Angeles Office Head; Global Chair,
Litigation Department
Proskauer Rose LLP

Nationally renowned trial lawyer, Bart Williams is chair of Proskauer’s Litigation Department and head of its Los Angeles office. He has extensive experience in commercial litigation, white collar criminal defense and corporate investigations. A longtime member of the American College of Trial Lawyers, Williams boasts an impressive track record of victories in both jury and bench trials nationwide. His legal prowess has made him the trusted trial counsel for numerous Fortune 500 companies, providing invaluable litigation and counseling services in high stakes, high-profile matters. Williams is known for his ability to deliver a win, and is often called upon just months or weeks before a trial.

Williams was lead trial counsel for Gilead Sciences in securing a significant trial victory in a $3.6 billion antitrust case on allegations that the pharmaceutical company struck an anticompetitive “pay-for-delay” patent settlement related to two of Gilead’s HIV medications, Truvada and Atripla.

JASON WILSON

Partner
Willenken LLP

Willenken partner Jason Wilson has more than 30 years of litigation experience, including substantial trial and appellate experience. Wilson has taken more than 15 civil matters to trial (both jury and bench) or binding arbitrations. His experience on the appellate side is equally deep. He started his career with two clerkships for two different judges on the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and has handled over 40 different appellate matters in his career so far.

Wilson is frequently retained as trial counsel by Fortune 500 clients, often just weeks before trial. His practice focuses on complex commercial business litigation, representing Fortune 500 companies across a range of industries in real estate, energy and utilities, environmental, intellectual property, class action, and complex business matters. Wilson’s representative clients include AbbVie, Southern California Gas Company, Hilton, McDonalds, Starbucks, Southern California Edison and Walgreens.

ANNITA ZHONG

Partner
Irell & Manella LLP

A partner at Irell & Manella, Annita Zhong focuses on patent litigation, contested patent office proceedings and licensing in the US, the European Union and China. She has deep experience litigating before federal and state courts, the International Trade Commission, arbitral panels and the Patent Trial and Appeal Board.

Before law school, Dr. Zhong was a senior research scientist at General Electric Company’s Global Research Center. Her engineering and research background enables her to digest new technologies quickly and has proven valuable in delivering significant victories for clients in complex litigation. In April 2023, Dr. Zhong co-led the team that scored a $303.15 million verdict for Netlist in a suit against Samsung involving five patents relating to computer memory technology. She also was a principal member of the team that secured an August 2021 $300 million jury award for PanOptis in a patent suit against Apple.

Congratulations to our Partner
Shawn Holley
for being named to the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2024 list of “Leaders of Influence: Minority Attorneys.”
