Amelia's Biography

A deep thinker and intuitive strategist, Amelia Sargent brings the best of academia's rigor and curiosity to her complex business litigation practice, applying a bold but meticulous approach to her clients' toughest problems. Benchmark Litigation has named Amelia a 2022 "Litigation Star" and included her on their 2021 "40 & Under Hot List." She has also been recognized in both the 2021 and 2022 editions of Best Lawyers' "Ones to Watch," and among SuperLawyers' "Southern California Rising Stars" in 2020 and 2021.

Amelia's practice focuses on trial and appellate litigation for clients in a wide range of industries—from electric car start-ups, to established biopharmaceutical companies, to mobile game developers—with a particular focus on intellectual property and trade secret disputes. Clients turn to Amelia for her steady judgment and guidance, and her ability to weave the law and facts together into a compelling—and ultimately winning—narrative.

Amelia's recent matters include:

- As a member of a 100%-diverse trial team in "one of the five big healthcare lawsuits" of the year, secured a favorable ruling on behalf of AbbVie Endocrine, Inc. in a breach of contract case against Takeda Pharmaceutical Co. Amelia questioned or defended multiple expert and percipient witnesses during the four-day trial in Delaware Chancery Court.

Cases

The following is a representative sample of Amelia's casework:

- Abbvie Endocrine, Inc. v. Takeda Pharmaceutical Company. As a member of a 100%-diverse trial team in "one of the five big healthcare lawsuits" of the year, secured a favorable ruling on behalf of AbbVie Endocrine, Inc. in a breach of contract case against Takeda Pharmaceutical Co. Amelia questioned or defended multiple expert and percipient witnesses during the four-day trial in Delaware Chancery Court.
- Global Software Corporation v. Former Executive. Currently defending against allegations of trade secret misappropriation and breach of a confidentiality agreement brought against a software engineering executive leaving a global software giant and going to a competitor start-up.
- Nascent Electric Vehicle Company v. Former Employees. As lead counsel for nine executives and employees, successfully resolved allegations of trade secret misappropriation, violation of non-solicitation obligations, and breach of fiduciary duties relating to the formation of a new electric vehicle start-up after they resigned from a competitor company.
- Global Biopharmaceutical Company v. Large Health Benefit Manager. After extensive research, drafted the case strategy that guided the firm's representation of and ultimately secured a favorable settlement for one of the world's largest biopharmaceutical companies in a complex breach of contract action involving some of the largest sponsored health plans in the country.
- Leading Manufacturer of Insulated Water Bottles v. Product Distributor. Crafted the driving strategy and narrative for a case—set to go to trial in 2022—in which the client, a leading manufacturer of insulated water bottles, alleged breach of fiduciary duties, misappropriation of trade secrets, and violation of confidentiality obligations against its former employees.

PARTNER

- Republic of Hungary, et al. v. Rosalie Simon et al. and Federal Republic of Germany v. Alan Phillip, et al. Filed an amicus brief in the Supreme Court for two university professors, in two high-profile matters involving litigation over Holocaust-era assets, addressing whether international comity could still provide a basis for a court to decline jurisdiction over a foreign sovereign, if the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act provided that no immunity existed.
- David Cassirer v. Thyssen-Bornemisza Collection Foundation. In the highly-watched cultural property case, submitted amicus briefs on behalf of the Solicitor General of the Kingdom of Spain at both the trial and appellate levels, regarding the application of Spanish principles of adverse possession.
- Lumens Co., Ltd. v. GoEco LED LLC et al. Argued and won summary judgment on behalf of Lumens Co. Ltd., a Korean LED manufacturer, against $16 million in cross-claims brought by a reseller, and then successfully presented oral argument to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit upon the defendant and counterclaimant's appeal, which affirmed the victory.
- Frey v. Southern California Gas Company and Sempra Energy. Enabled favorable resolution of case on behalf of the major California utility after filing the opening summary judgment motion on subject matter jurisdiction and pre-emption.
