Breeanna's Biography

A results-driven and persuasive litigator, Breeanna Brewer represents top clients in a variety of industries in both state and federal courts. Breeanna handles matters at every stage of litigation, from pre-trial motions and depositions to jury trials. She has extensive experience serving as second and third trial chair on behalf of prominent Fortune 500 companies and celebrity clients.

Breeanna's practice focuses on complex commercial, real estate, entertainment, and intellectual property litigation in state and federal courts. Through her early trial experience, Breeanna has developed skills that enable her to be forward-thinking. This allows her to develop innovative litigation strategies in all of her cases. Breeanna has in-depth experience drafting pleadings and motions, from complaints to post-trial motions, including motions for summary judgment, motions to dismiss, discovery motions, pre-trial motions, and trial briefs.

Breeanna recently served as second chair and third chair during two California state jury trials, where she represented a prominent automobile manufacturer in cases involving allegations of fraud. Breeanna played a key role in preparing the cases for trial and developing trial strategies. She cross-examined witnesses, including plaintiffs; drafted and argued pre-trial, trial, and post-trial motions; and assisted in preparing opening statements and closing arguments.

Breeanna also served as third chair in a prominent jury trial where she
